In consideration of the publication of the Article in Oceanography magazine, the Author(s) named above (the “Contributing Author(s)”) hereby transfer to The Oceanography Society (the “Society”) all worldwide rights in perpetuity in the Article, under copyright and otherwise, as a work-made-for-hire contribution to a collective work. If for any reason the Article should be deemed not a work-made-for-hire, the Contributing Author(s) hereby assign worldwide copyright in the Article to the Society. Without limiting the foregoing, the Contributing Author(s) hereby grant all worldwide rights in and to the Article to the Society with the exclusive right to publish, distribute and sell the Article as part of the collective work Oceanography magazine, and otherwise, whether in print, electronic or in any other medium now known or hereafter developed in which the Article may be communicated, in all languages, and to license others to do the same, or to refrain from any of the aforesaid.

The Contributing Authors represent and warrant that the Article has not been published previously, nor is it under consideration by any other publisher. The Contributing Authors further agree that unless and until rights in the Article revert to the Contributing Author(s) as provided hereinbelow, the Authors shall not submit it elsewhere for publication, nor shall any Contributing Author publish the Article, unless written permission is first obtained from the Society. The Contributing Author(s) will indemnify and hold the Society harmless from and against any claim, demand, damage, liability, cost or expense (including reasonable attorney’s fees), that may result from any claims, damages, losses or costs arising out of the Contributing Author’s breach of any of the representations or warranties made in this Transfer of Copyright agreement.
